Village News

Welcome to the November Edition of the Village News!

It looks like November is gearing up to be a highly sociable month; starting with our very own Fireworks and Bonfire Night at the Playing Field on Thursday 1st November followed by not one but two events at the Village Hall on the weekend of 10th and 11th November, with our regular film night happening the following Saturday 17th November.

Raffle Tickets are enclosed in your Village News this month to remind you that the annual Christmas Fayre is also not too far away. This is a good opportunity to purchase locally crafted and unique Christmas presents for friends and family, as well as the opportunity to taste a variety of locally produced meats and treats (Mark and I will be there as usual with the famous Apple Tree Cottage Bacon Buttie and Burger Stall, competing as always with Tricia's delicious Chilli from the Kitchen). It's a great day out and supports both the Village Hall and St Peter's Church too.

I've noticed a few "Sold" signs around the villages this month, so that must be good news for the people who are moving on – and also for those moving in. I would like to extend a warm welcome to all new arrivals to our villages of Felsham and Gedding, and hope to meet you at one of our events in the near future.

Jo

WW1 Beacon of Light St Peters Felsham – 11th November 2018

In commemoration and remembrance of the end of the first world war and the many millions who were killed or came home dreadfully wounded, 1000 Beacons of Light will be lit at 7pm throughout the UK - a century after the guns fell silent. We shall be lighting one of those beacons in the churchyard of St Peters Felsham at the allotted time. Please come if you can.

The Way We Were (an original play by Beryl Meed) – 11th November 2018

This is an adaptation of an original play written by our own multitalented Beryl Meed set just after the turn of the twentieth century and leading up to the First World War. The story is based on the names on the memorial plaque in Felsham and Gedding village hall, their daily life, their hopes and dreams and the looming war. It is a poignant reminder as we approach the 100th anniversary of the end of the Great War how many ordinary men, sons, brothers, husbands and fathers, from an ordinary country village like Felsham, gave their lives in the service of their country.

The Way We Were, first performed in November 2000, will be performed again this year at Felsham and Gedding Village Hall after the lighting of our beacon of light.

*Sombre thoughts of long ago,
Brave young men so willing to go,
To far away places across the sea
To selflessly fight for king and country.*

*"We go in five minutes" the sergeant said.
Five minutes 'til we face all that we dread.
Over the top towards bullet and shell,
To fight the enemy in a bloody hell.
Look centre, left and right,
War weary soldiers slump, too tired to fight.
No more than boys poised at their ladders,
Scared and frightened they empty their bladders.
In Flanders trench dark and dank
"One minute" barked sergeant, all hearts sank.
Then at last the command to go,
"Over the top!" Shrill whistles blow.*

*Gunfire and choking smoke fill the air,
Shells and shrapnel land everywhere.
On the battlefield all answer the call.
"Fight, show no mercy".
Young men fall.
For many, just a few yards they go,
And then a bullet delivers its blow,
Sinking deep and tearing breast,
Bringing escape and eternal rest.
Blood red poppies bloom in Flanders fields*

Police are issuing photographs of items of stolen property in an effort to return them to the rightful owners.

Photographs of some of the items can be found on the Suffolk Police website here: <http://www.suffolk.police.uk/news/latest-news/09-10-2018/mildenhall-appeal-return-stolen-property-its-owners>

Following a recent search of an address in the Mildenhall area, officers recovered a number of items of property which are believed to have been stolen. These include watches, jewellery and a plastic pot of collectable coins.

In addition to potentially being taken during burglaries in Suffolk, the items could also have been stolen from properties in neighbouring counties.

Anyone who believes they own any of the items in the photographs is asked to contact West CID at Bury St Edmunds Police Station on 101, quoting reference 57189/18.

PART TIME Mother's Help Required in Bradfield St George

Have your children grown up and flown the nest? Would you like a few hours work each week? If so you might be the person to help our family.

We are looking for a mature, responsible person to help us. We live in Bradfield St George so you would need to be a confident driver, trustworthy and enjoy being with children.

The job would involve picking children up from school, giving them a snack at home, playing some games with them and preparing a meal for the family. The hours would need to be flexible initially but we could work towards set days after a few weeks.

Basic hours would be 3 days a week 3/3.5hrs a day starting at 2:30/3:30pm. Good rate of pay. If this sounds interesting to you please get in touch.

Do you enjoy reading the Village News?

Would you like to have a go at editing it a couple of times per year?

The Village News is currently seeking additional editors to bring their personal slant to this very successful monthly magazine.

Editing a magazine takes about four hours in total, but this can be as flexible as you need it to be to fit in with your other commitments, and the number of times you commit to editing within the year is entirely up to you.

No previous experience of editing is necessary but some key computer skills such as copying and pasting are required, plus a desire to not be beaten by the occasional technical glitch. Full training and support will be provided.

Please contact either Jo on 01449 737793 or Tricia on 01449 736330 or email villagenews@felsham.org.uk if you would like more information.

Dear Friends,

As remembrance tide approaches we find ourselves reflecting back on the year, and on years gone by, both in our own lives and in the life of the nation. This year of course sees the commemoration of the end of the First World War, and in places of worship up and down the land there will be services to mark the occasion.

Unfortunately the first world war did not stop conflict – and we continue today to work for reconciliation and peace, amongst communities in our own country as well as between nations. We also pray for those who continue to engage in working for peace, as well as for those who have already lost their lives through cruel acts of terrorism and destruction.

To mark Remembrance Day we will be holding our annual service of remembrance at Felsham at 10.30am. The Felsham and Gedding Branch of the Royal British Legion will be present as usual, and we are most grateful to them for all they do for our Church in Felsham. Later in the evening there is to be a beacon lighting ceremony in the churchyard, as this is such a special year.

There are other events happening across the day but I do hope that you will come to the service – not least to remember those from Felsham, Gedding and Bradfield St George who died in the two world wars. We owe a great debt to them, and many others, who sacrificed themselves in order that future generations may enjoy great freedom.

May God be with you – as you remember those you have loved and lost this Remembrance tide.

Yours in Christ,

St Peter's Christmas Tree Festival

At this year's Christmas fair on 2nd December come along and enjoy the first day of this magical festive feast in the beautiful surroundings of St Peter's Church, Felsham. The scent of Christmas trees decorated with sparkling lights, baubles and bows will put you in the festive mood and this wonderful Christmas Tree Festival will add extra fizz to this perfect time of year.

A magical experience to be shared by everyone!

The Christmas Tree Festival is an open invitation for families, voluntary organisations and commercial enterprises to exhibit a tree, decorated with a theme of your choosing. Each tree will be clearly labelled with the name of the family, organisation or business and the theme of the tree. Help us once again to make this event a magical, colourful, imaginative and original display of trees of all shapes and sizes that will captivate the hearts and imagination of adults and children alike.

This festival provides an excellent opportunity for the whole village to participate, find out more about what's happening in the local community and the great variety of organisations, businesses, societies and interest groups that Felsham has to offer. It is also a chance to show support for our parish church and visit this historic and much loved landmark.

If you would like to participate and for full details please contact Churchwarden David on 01449 737778

Judith Shallow has very kindly sent us the following information:

Serena mentioned in the October News that she'd visited Norwich and been on the 'Hare Trail'.

Our readers may like to know that closer to home Bury has this Autumn put on a 'World War 1 Trail', to commemorate the 100 years since the end of that dreadful war. I highly recommend to anyone who has not yet been on it to go before it is taken down after the commemorations on 11th November.

There are some wonderful and poignant tributes and many fine works of art all by local artists right across the town. You can pick up the leaflet and map at the Apex.

Felsham and Gedding W.I. October Meeting

Chateaux and Gardens of France

Fontainebleau

Vaux le Vicomte

It was a very full house for the October Meeting – and what a meeting it proved to be. The President dealt swiftly with the business side and all the various opportunities that are available to members.

Knitting poppies (to mark the centenary of the WW1) may not be up your street but the W.I. is on the front line when it comes to dealing with various issues like plastic soup to the more fun activities conducive to good company and satisfaction.

Sue Beavan was the speaker for the evening and proved a marvellous travel companion. She and her husband had visited the Chateaux of the Loire and Paris extensively over the last 15 years. The resulting slides were so good you felt you were there.

We were treated to the facades and interiors plus gardens of eleven world famous chateaux and the talk concluded with Giverny (see pictures) – a fitting finale. And a fascinating subject.

Next month will be a cookery demonstration so if you feel like being inspired why not come along and join us at 7.30pm in the Village Hall.

TERRY WAITE THANKS COUNCILLORS FOR GRANT AID TO CHOIR

The Stowmarket councillors of Mid Suffolk District Council voted recently to award a £750 grant to help fund the life-enhancing activities of a long-established choir based in the Stowmarket area.

Stowmarket Chorale rehearses every Wednesday at Chilton Primary School in the town, and puts on three concerts a year, usually in Stowmarket's United Reformed Church or the parish church, but sometimes at the Apex or Snape Maltings.

The choir had approached Councillor Nick Gowrley with a request for help, so as to be able to keep membership subscriptions low, at only about £5 per rehearsal, and keep its concert tickets accessible. The Council's grant will cover the cost of hiring rehearsal venues, and also help with printing posters and flyers for events, including the Chorale's forthcoming concert of Handel's Messiah at Stowmarket Parish Church on Saturday 3 November.

The Chorale's President is Terry Waite CBE, the well-known humanitarian and former hostage. Both he and Councillor Gowrley attended a recent "Come and Sing" day designed to attract new members to sing under the baton of the choir's dynamic new Music Director, Tom Appleton, who is a former member of the world-famous Monteverdi Choir.

Terry Waite took the opportunity to thank Councillor Gowrley for the grant to this choir which will enrich the cultural life of members and audience alike, providing musical joy and social cohesion in Stowmarket and the surrounding villages.

THORPE MORIEUX AND DISTRICT GARDENING CLUB.

For the regular monthly meeting of The Thorpe Morieux and District Gardening Club on the 17th September Luci Skinner from Woottens of Wenhaston came to Thorpe Village Hall and gave an excellent illustrated talk on the popular garden feature known as The Herbaceous Border.

Luci brought along quite a large range of plants which when set up along the stage looked remarkably like an Herbaceous Border in Autumn.

The talk, however, covered all seasons of the year. The term, “herbaceous”, covers those plants which can generally be cut down before winter and they duly would appear again in spring from the dormant roots. The border could, of course, include some plants like shrubs or trees to give added structure which would require regular pruning to maintain a good year long appearance of the border. It is often felt that these borders possess “low maintenance” properties but there really is no such thing in gardening which still calls for weeding, controlling the virulent spread of some plants and dead heading together with new growth propagation.

Planning the border is essential to maintain a year-round good appearance and it need not be flowers only since colour from foliated plant stems together with grasses that sway in the breeze all add to become an all-season glorious display. Not everything is cut down in winter since some dry leaves or plant stems give good protection against frost damage.

In her very engaging talk Luci traced the history of gardens in this country since the 17th century when formal geometric shapes were common. This was followed by landscapes to look natural over large parkland. The Arts and Crafts era produced annual flower beds in strong colours looking rather like an oil painting. All of this meant the employment of many gardeners at quite a high cost. It follows that the herbaceous border today can be enjoyed in a pleasurable manner on relatively small garden plots. Luci suggested that in the spring the border might display a range of bulbs to be followed by a summer of Geraniums or Day Lilies leading to autumn's Dahlia and flowering grasses terminating with Hellebores and Cyclamen before resting for the winter. A wide choice of plants is available today to suit soil properties and general plot positioning.

Luci displayed a thorough knowledge of her subject which she presented in a way in which club members could enjoy without complicated gardening terminology.

Very kindly our speaker judged this month's competition which was to present three dahlias from your garden. Sid Boughton's entry was declared the eventual winner from this month's well-presented array of blooms.

The club chairman, Linda Shotbolt, thanked Luci for this rather special evening and the members, as usual, responded with a warm burst of applause.

Sid Broughton

Cockfield Computer Circle

Education, Advice, Guidance

2018-19 Programme

Booking is now open for the 2018-19 Programme of the Cockfield Computer Circle (CCC). The Programme starts on Monday November 5th and runs weekly to March 18th 2019. (There is a break over Christmas and New Year).

About the Computer Circle

The CCC sets out to help participants improve their computing knowledge and gain confidence in carrying out common tasks. This is achieved through a combination of teaching and sharing of experience amongst participants in a relaxed environment. Some topics are aimed at beginners seeking to learn new skills and gain more confidence in using a computer; other topics are aimed at the more experienced user seeking to push their knowledge a little further.

The sessions will be based on Windows 10.

Sessions are held on Mondays in the Ivy Room at Cockfield Hall, from 2.30 to 4.30. A donation is invited of £1 per person per session.

Please bring your own laptops. There are also desktops available in the facility.

The Programme is divided into 2 blocks. Block 1 is aimed at beginners seeking to develop their skills in the most common PC tasks. Also those in need of a refresher can dip into selected sessions. The second block includes sessions which go a little deeper into some of the topics from the first block, as well as introducing some new topics.

The overall schedule is subject to change depending on demand.

To make a booking please email neilka@btinternet.com or phone 07900 880888.

4. Sloth

Procrastination is the thief of time, the poets words leapt off the page. "I'll think about it, maybe tomorrow, haven't got the energy, too difficult", his stock excuses echoed in his mind. Now, he had a phrase that perfectly described his lethargy, his reluctance to commit and actually do something. He put down the book and drew back the curtains, the early morning sunlight revealing the shambles of his broken life. The gold buttons on his army uniform flashed in the mirror as he adjusted his loathed prosthetic leg, he pushed aside his wheelchair, ready for a new day.

BERYL'S VEGETARIAN AUTUMN CASSEROLE

This is a cheap, nourishing, nutritional stew containing protein and your 5 a day

Serves 4

Ingredients

3 Carrots [you can also use swede, celery or whatever you fancy]

2 Parsnips

1 large onion

2 Leeks

2 Tomatoes

Heat some oil in a large saucepan and add the chopped vegetables.

Stir for 2 minutes then add three quarters of a pint of water and stir in 1 dessertspoon each of stock powder and tomato puree.

Simmer until the vegetables are cooked [you may need to add more water so keep checking and give an occasional stir] then add a 410gm tin of baked beans.

Season if necessary. and serve with cheese scones

Cheese Scones

6 Ozs Self raising Flour sifted with 1 heaped teaspoon Baking Powder and a little pepper.

Add 2 and a half ozs margarine and make a mix like breadcrumbs

Add 4 ozs grated cheddar or include some Stilton if you like it

Add an egg and a little milk [or just milk ] and knead to a dough.

Roll out to 1 inch thickness, cut into circles, place on a greased baking sheet and bake at 190 degrees for 10 to 15 minutes till golden brown.

Makes about 10 scones

Serve everything piping hot.

(I find that the quicker you get the scones into the oven after the liquid is added, the better they rise).

Make your own winter bird bath

You will need:

- Three bricks
- Trowel (if it's been snowing)
- Shallow dish, pet bowl or dustbin lid
- Tealight candles and matches
- Warm water (not too hot)
- A large stone
- Warm clothes
- An adult to help you

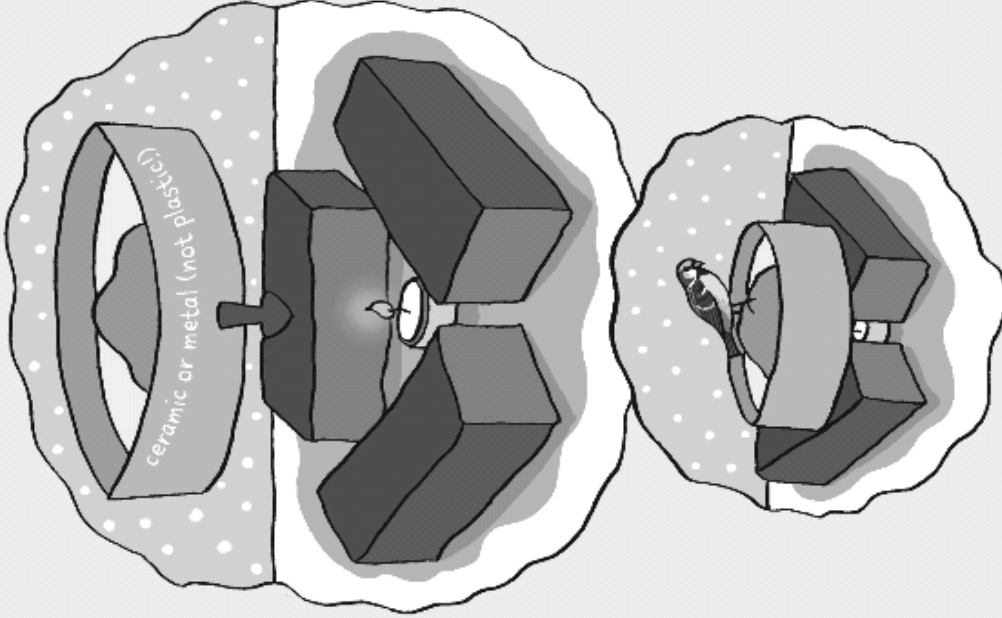

1 Find a flat area sheltered from the wind. Clear any snow and make a level patch.

2 Arrange the bricks in a triangle.

3 Ask an adult to light a tealight and place it in the middle.

4 Rest a metal or ceramic dish on the bricks, and fill with warm water.

5 Place a stone in the middle for birds to sit on.
