Village News

I mentioned in the last newsletter that there was a “hare trail” in Norwich over the summer and a few weeks ago Steve and I went for a lovely afternoon wandering round Norwich finding a good number of the artists hares and exploring the town. The hares are due to be auctioned off so lets hope that as well as having given a lot of enjoyment to a lot of people they also raise a good chunk for charity.

Well Autumn is definitely here and the lovely summer has paid dividends with the fruit. I have been making blackberry and apple puree, plum sauce with our glut of plums (think its been a bumper year for everyone) and looking at the sloes in the hedgerows I think we will be making sloe gin before too long. Haven’t grown tomatoes this year but a friend has promised to give me some of their green tomatoes so I can make my favorite chutney, the recipe for which you can find on page 7.

The nights might be drawing in but there is lots going on in the village in October – there is the ever popular quiz, a concert at St Peters, the film night and on 1 November the village Bonfire & Fireworks – be sure to get the dates in the diary.

3. Greed

He found no joy in accumulating wealth, what eluded him was a sense of achievement, satisfaction. His light bulb moment came when he was robbed in a remote part of India, savagely beaten, left with amnesia, all his wealth stripped away. He wandered aimlessly until a small boy asked if he could help, he offered him what little food and water he had and took him to his village. His family gave him refuge and gradually his strength and memory returned. He offered to repay them but was refused, they said their needs were small, their reward was his recovery.

Thorpe Morieux and District Gardening Club

For the Thorpe Morieux and District Gardening Club meeting on the evening of 20th August the members were given a special treat with a talk on Hedgehogs especially related to their relationship with gardeners. Sadly, the speaker booked for the evening could not attend so the club events team had to look around for an alternative at very short notice.

Jillian Macready from Bury St. Edmunds kindly stepped into the vacancy with a talk on “Gardening with Hedgehogs”. This could have been quite a challenge but Jillian soon had the members spell bound with her knowledge of hedgehogs and her determination to ensure the survival of these animals that need support as the declining numbers trend toward extinction.

Gardeners are in general lovers of nature and wildlife but tend to be wary of animals trespassing in their precious plots. However, the club members were soon impressed by the fact that the humble hedgehog was not about to damage anything because its main food intake is of beetles, slugs, snails, worms and many other insects and bugs normally the gardener’s enemies. So why not encourage “hogs” whose eating habit could be of value in the garden.

They travel through quite large distances at night and may pass through several gardens so hedges that can be crawled through are a good idea. Fences and walls etc. would require the provision of holes or tunnels for this purpose. Provision of piles of old leaves or a pile of old logs not pretty in the garden and perhaps a bed of nettles and weeds which attract the insects would be loved by the animals but perhaps not fitting with pretty flower beds and regimental vegetable patches. Additionally, the use of slug pellets or other chemicals are hedgehog killers. Our speaker Jillian suggested that some feeding might attract these beetle consuming friend’s but not with cow’s milk or bread but with some types of dry dog food or cats’ biscuits and always a supply of clean drinking water. These animals have few natural enemies other than badgers and cars but pet dogs let out at night can be a worrying feature.

After the talk the club chairman Linda Shotbolt thanked the speaker for her excellent presentation saying that Jillian had reinforced the club members natural care for wildlife and had encouraged all to consider the need to maintain a healthy population of hedgehogs for future generations. The members expressed their thanks with a loud and warm burst of applause.

The club competition for this month was to present a display of five vegetables from their own gardens. Unfortunately, there were less entries this year due to the difficult growing season and in particular runner beans had suffered badly with the root crops requiring considerable irrigation. Never the less club member Kylie Sheppard produced a splendid show basket and was declared the trophy winner for this year as can be seen in the picture.

If your tomato plants have got lots of green tomatoes on them that you think will now never ripen then try this delicious Nigel Slater recipe that makes 2 -3 jars of:

MIXED TOMATO CHUTNEY

- 900g tomatoes, mixed green and red
  - 350g onions
  - 90g raisins
  - 250g light muscovado sugar
  - 1 medium sized, hot red chilli
  - 1 tsp salt
  - 2 tsp yellow mustard seeds
  - 300ml white wine vinegar
- Halve the tomatoes.
  - Put the green fruit together with the peeled and roughly chopped onions, into a large stainless- steel or enameled pan with the raisins, sugar, chilli, salt, mustard seeds and vinegar.
  - Bring to the boil, turn down the heat and leave to simmer, giving the occasional stir to reduce the risk of the chutney sticking.
  - After about 25 minutes cooking, add the ripe tomatoes and continue to simmer.
  - Times vary but expect chutney to need cooking for between an hour and an hour and a half
  - Spoon into well sterilized jars and seal.

More than 1,100 drivers were caught speeding during a week-long enforcement campaign in Suffolk in August.

Officers from the Norfolk and Suffolk Roads Policing Unit and vans from the Suffolk Safety Camera Partnership were deployed across the county to carry out checks as part of a week-long European-wide campaign co-ordinated by TISPOL between Monday 6 and Sunday 12 August.

During the campaign a total of 1,168 drivers were caught speeding, 998 of which were caught by fixed or mobile camera sites, while 170 were caught by officers on patrol.

Chief Inspector Kris Barnard, head of the Norfolk and Suffolk Roads Policing and Firearms Operations Unit, said: "Speeding is recognised as one of the 'fatal four' offences which leads to people being killed or serious injured in a collision along with drink driving, using a mobile phone and not wearing a seatbelt.

"We target these and other types of offences all year round but these campaigns allow to raise awareness among drivers and explain the consequences of speeding.

"Drivers should adjust their speed to suit the conditions on the road and be aware of hazards. The higher your speed, the less time you have to react. Think...could you stop in time if something unexpected happened in front of you?"

The Village News is currently seeking additional editors to bring their personal slant to this very successful monthly magazine.

Editing a magazine takes about four hours in total, but this can be as flexible as you need it to be to fit in with your other commitments, and the number of times you commit to editing within the year is entirely up to you.

No previous experience of editing is necessary but some key computer skills such as copying and pasting are required, plus a desire to not be beaten by the occasional technical glitch. Full training and support will be provided.

Dear Friends,

Who remembers the great storm of 1987? I was living and working in Ipswich at that time, and I managed to sleep through the whole thing! The day after the storm I walked to work (I lived very close to the centre of Ipswich then), and I wondered what had happened. Fences and walls had been demolished, people on the streets seemed very preoccupied. I had been late getting up and as a consequence hadn't listened to the radio that morning either. By the time I reached my place of work, I knew something had happened but couldn't quite work out what it was. The girl on reception at the solicitor's firm I worked for looked at me strangely when I asked her what was going on. 'Where've you been?' she said, 'didn't you hear the hurricane?' I had to admit that I hadn't. In those days I slept very heavily so it had completely passed me by.

I think that life can be like that at times, things just pass us by. Sometimes it feels as though we are missing out, be it in the region of technology, fashion, food, holiday destinations, TV programmes – or even the latest gossip. But are we really?

In my ministry I often meet people who have no idea about any of those things. They are content with what they have and live their lives very simply and peacefully. They want for nothing more besides good food, warmth, perhaps a good book or two and companionship. There are times when I envy them!

There is so much to distract us in life that it can be difficult at times to know how we should live our lives and be true to ourselves. There are many who have found themselves in this position and have gradually discovered that to follow Jesus is the way to true happiness and peace of mind. I can think of one celebrated person in history who did just that, C S Lewis, who wrote the Chronicles of Narnia. He went from being an absolute atheist to a Christian of great conviction. I love his books, and thoroughly recommend them to you. Who knows, perhaps you will discover something about faith within them that will surprise you.

Yours in Christ,

Rev'd Sharon

St. Peter's Church, Felsham

On Sunday October 7th Bishop Mike Harrison is coming to take part in our Family Service.

Our two Bishops are kept very busy in our large Rural Diocese and we are delighted that Mike is able to join us for this service.

We start with Breakfast soon after 9am and the informal Service begins before 10am and is followed by Coffee. So there will be plenty of time to speak to Mike as well as the rest of the congregation. The service lasts just over half an hour.

We hope to see you there.

CONCERT

We shall be welcoming Some first class musicians to St Peter's Church on Sunday 21st October and warmly invite you to join us at 7.30

Thursday's Band comprises Lucinda Fudge [vocal, viola and violin], Mark Gamon [vocals and guitar], Matt Kelly [vocals, violin, mandolin and viola] and Nick Blishen [guitar]

They offer a spellbinding mix of songs which tell tales from the past, poignant and personal, laments and exuberant melodies.

They love performing in Country Churches.

John Meed, based in Cambridge, who writes and sings in the folk and acoustic traditions, will also be singing and playing guitar; John has just released his seventh album 'Never Enough'

Tickets: £10 includes wine and refreshments and can be obtained from the Post Office, David Williams, Beryl Meed or you can pay at the door.
